

MG 62175 Highlights The Rotary Save A Child Grant

Through the empowerment of education and participatory development, rural Cambodian families and their children are building sustainable lives and envisioning new futures. Thank you, Rotarians, for your service.

YOU MADE THESE MOMENTS HAPPEN!

Pictured above ~ In December 2007 SC Education Coordinator and Pursat Rotarian Orn Sophalla joins Community leader in addressing 65 new students and their families during enrollment day with the Save A Child (SAC) Grant.

Pictured right ~ Rotarian Bouy Sinat (and former SC Health Care Manager) provide health exams for new SAC students.
Enrollment Photos by Susan Mastin

Student Scholarships

Rotary Participation ~ Student Scholarships

In April 2008 International partner and Locust Valley Rotarian Gabor Karsai traveled to Pursat to meet the host club members, to tour the grant project sites and to meet with the grant beneficiary students and families.

While there, he assisted in presenting 20 bicycles to happy SAC students! Bicycles help remote rural children arrive at school with energy to learn.

Rotarians from left ~ Heng Ruon, Charter President Sorn Soknay, Mr Karsai, and Orn Phalla.

Gabor and Pursat President Heng Sopheana with little Chhieng Chanthy.

November, 2008 ~ SAC students become wonderful friends and classmates under guidance of outstanding English teacher Sok Rathana.

Photo by Rtn Elena Casson

Rotary Participation ~ Family Empowerment and Economic Opportunities

During the grant year, host club Rotarians toured the project sites to monitor the projects and to learn from the beneficiary families about their challenges and successes.

Animal Pass-On, Agriculture, Wells

Rotarians speak with beneficiaries about their experiences with hens, pigs, and seed.

Rtns Pheana, Phanna, Sino study red worm / compost.

Compost and Fishponds ~ Eels, Tilapia & Catfish enrich soil and diets.

Rotarians visit new eel fishpond system.

SAC student Sreyleak and family

Enterprise Start-up

Treasurer Pich Sino interviews Enterprise family.

Rtn and SC Community Development Coordinator Kov Bong joins SAC student and visiting Rtn. Gabor Karsai for family home visit.

Partnership in Goodwill
Friendship
Service Above Self